THE ACADEMY

University courses of special interest to teachers of English and drama, university students and Shakespeare enthusiasts.

MONDAY, JULY 21, TO FRIDAY, AUGUST 8, 2008

In partnership with the universities of Brock, Guelph, Waterloo, Windsor, Western Ontario and St. Jerome's (affiliated with the University of Waterloo), the Stratford Shakespeare Festival offers the following courses for university credit:

Shakespeare in Performance

A historical, theoretical and analytical introduction to Shakespeare in performance, taught by a university professor, with guests from the Stratford Shakespeare Festival company. The focus will be on current Festival productions of Shakespeare. The class will meet for three hours per day, five afternoons per week, and will include attendance at Shakespeare productions. Auditors welcome.

For registration information, contact Ann Wilson at the University of Guelph, 519-824-4120, ext. 53148 or by e-mail at annwilso@uoguelph.ca

Teaching Shakespeare: English Honours Specialist Accreditation

Teachers of English may enrol in this innovative program on the teaching of Shakespeare through the Faculty of Education at the University of Windsor. Taught by Professor Donald Laing (University of Windsor), the course will meet in Stratford five days per week for three weeks. Teachers seeking English Honours Specialist accreditation must meet the academic requirements. Auditors welcome.
